LETTER TO EDITORS

Editorial Board acknowledges the remarks and suggestions raised in the letter regarding impeccability of the journal. We assure readership of our continual effort for improving the journal’s quality, and hope that the author(s) would adhere the sensitivity of the issue and the writer’s ethics. Regarding the second issue raised, the respective authors have referred the content in the aforementioned paragraph in the article’ to PRMD, 2009. Due to lack of further evidences, the Editorial Board visualizes no scope to charge the authors of any plagiarism.

Editor-in-Chief