

EDITORIAL

Continuing the Legacy

We have brought forth the fourth volume of Academic Voices. We are pleased that the previous volumes of the journal received appreciations from all corners and their kind remarks have a constant inspiration for us. Like the previous volumes, this issue has incorporated contributions from various streams (science, education, management, humanities and social sciences).

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to all those authors whose articles have been published in this volume. We are really sorry for excluding a couple of manuscripts failing to meet the academic rigor required by the journal.

Moreover, we would like to thank Mr. Lalan Dwibedi, the Campus Chief of Thakur Ram Multiple Campus for financial assistance and thereby enhancing the research activities in this institution.

The views expressed in articles are the views of the contributors and therefore neither the campus nor the editorial team is responsible for it.

Conclusively, the editorial team of Academic Voices welcomes views and suggestions for improving the quality of the journal.
