

EDITORIAL

It is our great pleasure that we welcome to the new issue of a Journal of Nepal Physical Society (JNPS) Volume 7, Issue 2 (2021). JNPS is a peer-reviewed, open access journal dedicated to publishing original research articles as well as review articles focused on different field of physics. This journal welcomes articles contributed by the researchers including our members, university faculties, and students on the contemporary issues in all the domain of physics. All the interested contributors can complete online publication procedure such as article submission, reviewing and other correspondences.

JNPS publishes regularly submitted manuscripts binomially. The articles selected and reviewed by the regular system are accepted for publication. The journal's editorial board is strongly convinced for providing peer-reviewed articles and is dedicated publishing procedure. In this issue, there is a collection of twenty selected research articles from those submitted to the journal. All the papers published in this edition underwent peer-review process involving a minimum of two reviewers. JNPS is currently accepting manuscripts for upcoming issues based on original qualitative or quantitative research.

On behalf of JNPS, I would like to thank and extend my gratitude to my editorial board members and our reviewers. Special thanks are to the contributors for providing their innovative research works to the readers via this issue of JNPS. Our editorial team welcomes the constructive feedback for the improvement of the publication incoming issues.

Finally, we very much appreciated your comments queries, suggestions, and correspondences. This is indeed an exciting time for JNPS. We look forward to helping advance the field of physics research by providing another new research of our well-wisher. Thank you.
